

EFT Tapping for Divine Wealth

There are different kinds of financial wealth. Divine Wealth refers to how the money is acquired, and how it is repurposed.

If you're ripping people off and have no interest in the outcome for the person whom you're receiving the money from, this comes from a place of greed, and ultimately the Law of Reciprocity will bring back to you what you put out in the first place.

If you're creating a fair exchange, offering people value and treating your clients or customers with kindness, respect and understanding, then this is in Divine order and the money that comes to you will contain Divine energy and, providing you're open to receive, you'll be able to multiply this money according to Divine Law.

As you also set the intention to make a difference and use some of the money you receive to help others and live out your mission, you alter the energy of any of the money you receive through your intention. Intention is one of the most powerful aspects of this work.

How you choose to spend your money is also a part of this equation. We shape the world we live in by the choices we make. Are you making conscious choices to spend your money as much as you can on products that come from companies that are, to the best of your knowledge, cruelty free, sustainable, don't exploit others and are environmentally friendly?

So today the EFT Tapping is about receiving Divine Wealth and repurposing what you receive to live life consciously on your terms, and help others in the process.

Think about how open you are to receiving Divine Wealth and rate the statement 'I'm open to receiving Divine Wealth'. How true does it feel on a scale of 0 to 10? Now work through the tapping sequence below.
